

Giants Make 3 Runs in First Inning; Yankees Score Two in Wild Game

Attendance Off Sharply as Giants Assign Hal Schumacher to Bolster Their Lingered World Series Hopes.

YANKS JUBILANT

Ruffing Carrying Pitching Job for Yanks, Expects to Polish Giants Fourth Time.

Yankee Stadium, N. Y., Oct. 5 (AP)—The sun pierced a hazy setting today as the rampant Yankees, needing only one more victory to clinch the World Series and the winners' share of a record player pool, assigned their big right-hander, Red Ruffing, to the job of polishing off the Giants for the fourth time.

The National League champions planned their lingering hopes on a return to form by Hal Schumacher, the "sinker" ball expert who was knocked out of the box in his first start last Friday.

After record-breaking crowds Saturday and Sunday in the stadium, the attendance fell off sharply for the fifth contest. An estimated 50,000 cash customers were in the stands at game-time, as compared with the record gathering of 66,669 yesterday.

The batting order:
Giants: Moore, 1f; Bartlett, ss; Terry, 1b; Ott, rf; Ripple, cf; Mancuso, c; Whitehead, 2b; Jackson, 3b; Schumacher, p.
Yankees: Crosetti, ss; Rolfe, 3b; DiMaggio, cf; Gehrig, 1b; Dickey, c; Selkirk, rf; Powell, lf; Lazzari, 2b; Ruffing, p.

The infield was sprinkled to put down the dust shortly before the start of the game. The crowd stood while the band played the Star Spangled Banner. Captains Gehrig of the Yankees and Jackson of the Giants conferred briefly at the plate with the umpire. Schumacher continued warming up for several minutes after Ruffing went back to the Yankee bench. The Yankees trotted out on the field a few minutes ahead of schedule and the fifth game was on.

First Inning
Moore smashed a base hit down the left field line on the first pitch for two bases.

Bartlett hit the third pitch down the right field line for a double, scoring Moore.

Terry fanned, swinging at a fast ball.

Ott grounded out on a hopper through the box. Crosetti to Gehrig. Bartlett advanced to third.

With count one ball, two strikes, Ripple dropped a base hit in short left, scoring a Bartlett.

Mancuso smashed the first pitch to right for a single, sending Ripple to third.

Whitehead fouled a couple and then slashed a hit between Lazzari and Gehrig, scoring Ripple. Mancuso stopped at second.

There was a conference in the box among the Yankees and activity in the bullpen.

Jackson hoisted the first pitch to DiMaggio in left center.

Three runs, five hits, no errors, two left.

Crosetti ran the count to two and then fanned on a called third strike.

Ripple made a sensational tumbling catch of Rolfe's line drive to short center. He came up with the ball after a complete somersault.

Jackson tossed out DiMaggio after taking his slow hopper and the crowd gave the Giants an ovation.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Second Inning
Schumacher hoisted the first pitch to DiMaggio in deep center field.

Moore popped to Rolfe on the first pitched ball.

Bartlett fanned, swinging.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

With the count three and one Gehrig poled a hit down the right field line and raced all the way to third when the ball bounded through Ott's legs. It was a single for Gehrig and an error for Ott.

Dickey rolled down the first base line and was tossed out at first. Schumacher to Terry, whose fast relay to Mancuso caught Gehrig at the plate for a double play.

Selkirk let three balls and two called strikes go by. Then he belted one of Schumacher's slants for a home run into the right field stands. It was his second circuit clout of the series.

Powell slid to Ripple.

One run, two hits, one error, none left.

Third Inning
Terry grounded out on the first pitch. Crosetti to Gehrig.

Italian Lira Reduced 41 Per Cent by Mussolini

Rome, Oct. 5 (AP)—Premier Mussolini reduced the value of the Italian lira 41 per cent today in a sweeping financial decree approved by the cabinet.

The new value of the Italian monetary unit was set officially at 19 to the United States dollar and 90 to the British pound although the lira's gold content was registered at 92.46 to the pound.

The cabinet also approved a capital levy on property owners who were required to subscribe to a loan to the extent of 5 per cent of the valuation of their property.

Il Duce, in addition, ordered new taxes on stock dividends and company profits, prohibited price rises on increases in public service rates and decreed a 65 per cent reduction in customs duties for grains and cereals.

(The premier's action fixed the value of the lira at approximately 5.2 cents as compared to 7.5 cents, the closing quotation on the New York foreign exchange market Saturday.)

Accidental Deaths in U. S. May Total 110,000 for 1936

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 5 (AP)—Accidental deaths in the United States will total about 110,000 for 1936, the National Safety Council's statistical bureau calculated today at the opening of the 25th National Safety Conference.

This would be 10,000 more than last year's death toll, and 9,000 above the previous high figure, reached in 1934, the bureau reported to the thousands of industrial and traffic engineers, public officials and insurance men as they began their conference, which will continue until Friday night.

The calculation, based on accident reports for the first eight months of the year, was pronounced "startling" by the safety advocates, in view of their program to reduce accidents 35 per cent during the five years beginning last January 1.

Of the expected 10,000 increase, the bureau estimated 6,000 could be attributed to excessive heat—sunstroke, heat collapse and blowouts traceable to hot roads. The other 4,000, the report said, would be chargeable to increases in home, public and occupational accidents.

In addition, the bureau predicted approximately 9,500,000 non-fatal injuries. Automobile fatalities for the year were calculated at 36,300, a drop of 2 per cent.

Receipts for the fiscal year (since July 1), $1,171,332,951.19; expenditures, $1,170,661,022.26 (including $628,850,569.72 of emergency expenditures); excess of expenditures, $539,338.07; gross debt, $33,822,066,263.85, a decrease of $6,744,432.50 under the previous day; gold assets, $10,857,049,323.29.

Commercialized Vice

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 5 (AP)—A federal grand jury, sitting in a special session and its deliberations closely guarded, began considering today the government's case against prisoners rounded up in a sweeping investigation by agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation of commercialized vice in Connecticut.

George H. Cohen, assistant U. S. attorney, who said he intended to present "at least 45 cases" for indictment, had 14 witnesses ready to testify before the jury today.

Donation Day for The Home for Aged

This year the annual donation day for the Home for the Aged on Washington avenue will be Thursday, October 8. There are 36 elderly women and two couples living happily there. Winter vegetables, fruit, pickles, jellies, canned fruits, jacks, etc., would be most welcome as would gifts of money with which to purchase supplies.

There is another need, especially for those who cannot get out except with great difficulty or not at all, and that is occasional entertainment. The managers ask that all friends of the Home for the Aged call on October 8. All are cordially invited to visit the home and see how it operates.

Paris, Oct. 5 (AP)—Speedy suppression of French Fascist groups by the Socialist government was predicted today after belligerent political foes battled through the city's streets.

"Organized combat" by Fascists attempting to break up a Communist meeting, informed sources declared, had shown the new Social party to be a military league rather than a political organization.

Street rioting—characterized as "the worst in many years"—transformed the area near the Parc Des Princes into a shambles yesterday and brought 12,000 policemen and mobile guards into action as the political battlers surged in attacks and counter-attacks.

Fifteen hundred persons were jailed temporarily although all but a few were released later after the fighting had been halted by energetic and strong-armed guards.

The series of running fights—in which heads were cracked, property damaged and Sunday peace shattered completely—started when Communists took over the park for a rally.

Fascists previously had declared they would hold a session in the same location but the Communists got up early and got there first.

Guarded By Police

Helmeted policemen guarded the 100,000 leftist supporters as rightists allied with Col. Francois De La Rocque's party began sallies against small groups.

Most of the fighting occurred in the outskirts of the crowd with opposing forces attacking and retreating in turn.

Cafes and stores within several blocks of the park suffered heavy damage as combatants wrecked commercial property in their vicious battles.

The Communist mass meeting proceeded during the uproar in the vicinity. Speakers praised the popular front government of Premier Leon Blum, condemned Fascism as "Public Enemy No. 1," and demanded arrest of De La Rocque on a charge of starting a "civil war."

Anti-Fascist Demonstration

London, Oct. 5 (AP)—Fifty marauders invaded the Jewish colony in London's east end today to raid shops after police had quelled an earlier anti-Fascist demonstration.

With brick and stones, the roaming band smashed windows and plate glass fronts in a renewal of street rioting which forced cancellation of a parade planned by Sir Oswald Mosley, British Fascist leader.

Disturbances developed yesterday as Mosley's followers congregated near the town of London and anti-Fascist demonstrators in the east end threatened to charge the procession. Police persuaded Sir Oswald to call off the parade although scattered skirmishes broke out at a number of points.

Approximately 100 persons were arrested and between 200 and 300 treated for minor injuries before order was restored in the district.

Officials estimated a crowd of 30,000, chanting, "they shall not pass," lay in wait for the 6,000 black-shirted Fascists, and disrupted the gathering.

PROTEST BUILDING THE NYACK-TARRYTOWN BRIDGE

Nyack, N. Y., Oct. 5 (AP)—Residents of Rockland and Westchester counties today prepared for a meeting at Grand View next Saturday to protest the proposed construction of the Nyack-Tarrytown bridge across the Hudson river.

A decision to call the protest meeting was reached at a conference of residents of the two counties Saturday. They met on a boat in Tappan Zee Bay.

William Church Osborne, president of the Hudson River Conservation Society, was appointed to select a committee of 75 to arrange the meeting.

Col. Charles O. Gunther, mathematics professor at Stevens Institute of Technology, at the meeting Saturday said there was no economic necessity for the bridge. Elmer S. Hader, Grand View zoning commissioner, said the bridge would spoil that section of the Hudson as a "scenic spot."

Construction of the $12,000,000 bridge was authorized by the legislature and approved by Governor Lehman this year.

Central Methodist Conference.

Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 5 (AP)—Delegates to the Central New York conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church brought their business to a close today after approving a report which said that compulsory teachers' oaths were "discriminatory legislation tending toward the denial of a freedom of speech." Under New York law teachers are required to swear to support allegiance to the state and federal constitutions. The report was presented by Dr. Raymond H. Wines of Ithaca, chairman of the committee on the state of church and country. Abolition of child labor was urged by a report adopted by the conference, while social security measures were commended.

Mitchell, Ousted from Commerce Department, Charges Waste, Graft

Former Assistant Secretary of Commerce Writes About Charges He Made Before Senate Committee Last Spring.

IRREGULARITIES

Terms Air Department Full of "Patronage, Politics and Piffle" and Wards of Future.

Washington, Oct. 5 (AP)—Ewing Y. Mitchell, ousted assistant secretary of commerce, today elaborated in a book called "Kicked In And Kicked Out of The President's Little Cabinet"—the charges of waste and irregularities he made before a Senate committee last spring.

Mitchell's ouster in 1935 was followed by a controversy before a Senate committee which heard his charges, and denials by officials, including Secretary Roper.

After describing what he termed "patronage, politics and piffle" in the Bureau of Air Commerce, and citing alleged irregularities in the Commerce Department, Mitchell's book concludes:

"Our democratic form of government and our liberties can be preserved only by the overthrow of these sinister forces which continue to undermine efforts for reform in vital governmental affairs ordered by the people at the polls."

"The American political system was never subjected to such a test of honesty as under the New Deal experiments and expenditures. It never had so much money placed at its disposal upon such lax terms."

Old Familiar Brand

"As window dressing we have idealism and reforms, but the stock in trade is the old familiar brand of politics and thousands of bureaucrats are determined the old order shall not be disturbed."

Mitchell wrote that he had been informed by a friend that a partner of a senator received a fee of $18,000 after the senator secured for a constituent a contract detrimental to the government's interest. The senator was not named.

Mitchell also charged that the Roosevelt Steamship Company, which he said operated 18 vessels in one of the shipping board's services on a capital investment of $10,120, made $371,988 in 3 1/2 years, or 1050 per cent per annum. He said the company was one of the international mercantile marine groups, guided by P. A. S. Franklin, J. M. Franklin, Kermit Roosevelt and Vincent Astor.

He asserted that 40 salvageable shipping board vessels were scrapped as a compromise with a Maryland metal company because Senator Tydings (D., Md.) "just raised hell." Mitchell argued the ships could have been repaired and put into service again.

Blame for Plane Crash

He argued that the plane crash which caused the death of Senator Cutting (R., N. M.) resulted from failure properly to maintain aids to air navigation.

He declared that an appointment was made in the Air Commerce Bureau for which a congressman said he (the congressman) would be paid $1,000.

"One of the most flagrant examples of waste of public money," he came to his attention, Mitchell declared, was purchase by a 12-passenger Air Commerce of a 12-passenger trim-motor airplane. He said "The plane was devoted to the personal pleasure" of Colonel Clarence M. Young, Mitchell's predecessor.

Shot to Death in Auto.

New York, Oct. 5 (AP)—A man, identified through the driver's license as Carmine Clardi, 27, of 1783 Southern Boulevard, the Bronx, was found shot to death in an automobile in the Bronx today. Dominick Blasto, who had been picking wild mushrooms in the woods near Bogart avenue, saw the car, looked in and found Clardi slumped over the wheel. He had been shot through the right ear.

Justices of Supreme Court Meet Today to Consider New Cases

Washington, Oct. 5 (AP)—With a quantity of New Deal legislation already on the docket, the supreme court began today a new, eight-month term considered certain to write new chapters in the history of American government.

Their four-month vacation ended, the nine justices returned to their great marble building to file through crimson-draped doors into the court chamber at noon, Eastern Standard Time, while the official crier uttered a solemn "Oyez! Oyez! Oyez!"

Today's program was brief, with the justices spending an hour or so admitting attorneys to practice before the tribunal and receiving motions that have accumulated during the summer recess which began last June 1.

Some time during the week the court will visit the White House to pay its respects to President Roosevelt, according to long-standing custom.

The following two weeks will be devoted to hearing arguments on some of the 56 cases the court agreed last spring to review. Final rulings on some of these will be read on November 3, six days after the presidential election.

Action Next Monday

Action is likely to be announced next Monday on petitions for reconsideration of decisions last term holding unconstitutional the New York minimum wage law for women and the Federal Municipal Bankruptcy act to aid cities, counties and other political subdivisions reduce their indebtedness in bankruptcy courts.

Recently-enacted legislation involved in pending disputes includes the Wagner Labor Relations act, the Francis Lemke Farm Mortgage Moratorium law, the 1935 Emergency Relief measure furnishing money for public-owned hydroelectric projects, and the Public Utility Holding Company law.

Others are the act regulating the securities business, the 50 per cent tax on silver profits made before the silver purchase act became effective, the act authorizing an embargo on shipments of arms to Berlin and Paraguay for their Chaco war, the Ashurst-Summers measure to label prison-made goods and 1934 amendments to the railway labor act authorizing collective bargaining between employees and employers.

Though the average age of the nine justices is only a little less than 71, they all appeared in good health and refreshed from their vacation. Six of them are eligible to retire because they have reached the age of 70 and have served ten years on the federal bench, but so far as is known none of them plans such a step in the near future.

Justice Bleakley To Return Upstate, Talks With Farmers

New York, Oct. 5 (AP)—Supreme Court Justice William F. Bleakley, Republican candidate for governor, returned today to the metropolitan area after a week-end in upstate New York during which he made one speech and held "fact finding" conferences with farm leaders preparatory to formulating a definite policy on agricultural problems.

He planned to spend the day clearing up a number of judicial matters before resigning from the bench, and was scheduled tonight to address a Nassau county Republican rally. Tomorrow, the nominee will return upstate for three weeks' of campaigning.

Justice Bleakley discussed with farm leaders in Albany and Ithaca "various programs for agriculture," but withheld any definite commitments until "a speech very soon."

"Until I am satisfied thoroughly as to the financial status of the state," he said, "I am not going to commit myself to an expression of these projects, no matter how desirable they may be."

The Republican standard bearer said he found views of the farm leaders with whom he talked in Albany, Saturday, and Ithaca, yesterday, "substantially" in agreement. The milk control problem, he added, was the principal topic of discussion.

"I found that some agree that milk price fixing is not desirable and others feel that it should have a further test," he said. "But everybody concluded they have no immediate solution of the problem."

Justice Bleakley's conference at Ithaca yesterday were Jean Carl B. Ladd of Cornell University's College of Agriculture, Howard E. Babcock, president of the Grange League Federation, Prof. George F. Warren, former monetary adviser to President Roosevelt, Fred Seaver, president of Fairmen's League, and Edward Eastman, editor of the American Agriculturist.

In Albany, Saturday, he talked for an hour with eight members of the state board of farm organizations and later told interviewers:

"If farmers can get a fair return without state-fixed prices for milk, I am for it."

In addition to milk control, the

Believe That 2,000 Socialists Have Concentrated Near Toledo—Loyalists Take Coastal Town Near Bilbao.

MORALE BETTER

Discipline, Supplies and Guns Bring New Hope to the Loyalist Cause.

By RICHARD G. MASSOCK
(Copyright, 1936, by Associated Press)

Toledo, Spain, Oct. 5—Victorious Fascists holding Toledo began a new barrage on Socialist militiamen today, shelling a government encampment east of the Alcazar city.

Fresh fighting broke out after week-end skirmishes between insurgent patrols and government troops at the field training quarters of the former military school 2 1/2 miles from the city's eastern boundary.

Insurgent artillery poured shells into the camp where 2,000 Socialists were estimated to have congregated. Moorish Legionnaires added machine gun and rifle slugs to the barrage.

Government soldiers opened an attack on supply roads leading to Santa Olalla and Maqueda but fiercely-fighting Moors drove them back with casualties.

The fighting was so near Toledo today Fascists quartered among the ruins of the Alcazar were able to fire rifles from the battered parapets.

Exploding artillery shells could be seen plainly from positions along the devastated Cocodriller Plaza in the heart of the city.

Fascist commanders estimated only 500 government assault guards and 300 militiamen were fighting on the Socialists' side.

Motrico Reported Taken

Saint Jean de Luz, France, Oct. 5 (AP)—The important coastal town of Motrico, on the Bay of Biscay, was reported captured by Spanish government troops today in a general northeastern offensive on the Bilbao front.

Supplied with arms turned out under the fire of General Emilio Mola's insurgent artillery at Eibar, the Socialist militia was said to have denied the Fascist lines in the sector around Motrico, 20 miles north-east of Bilbao.

The government push, it was said, hit with sudden fury in the vicinity of El Gohar, northwest of Eibar, and around the important highway junction of Victoria.

Infantry Attack

The coastal city fell to an infantry attack after government field guns subjected it to a day and night of ceaseless bombardment.

The Fascist forces fell back in the direction of Dera, a scant mile to the east.

Turning the tide of battle in the vicinity of Eibar, besieged by insurgents for days, the government militiamen moved up their artillery and planted it on the Marquina hill from where they opened fire on El Gohar.

On the southern end of the line Socialist battalions were reported bringing serious pressure on Victoria, the fall of which might cause grave complications for Mola's army.

Victoria is the insurgent air base and concentration point for troop movements along the entire Fascist sector from San Sebastian to the Burgos provisional headquarters at Bilbao.

Fresh Supplies.

Government sympathizers said the successes of the Socialist troops were the immediate result of fresh supplies of arms and the reestablishment of discipline in their ranks.

While Anarchists and Basque Nationalists were fighting among themselves for the upper hand in Bilbao, insurgent drives pushed the city's defense lines so near that they almost captured Eibar and its important arms factory.

The Bilbao defense Junta, however, finally got control of the situation, reports said today, and brought harmony into the ranks of the defenders.

Warning To Ships.

Gibraltar, Oct. 5 (AP)—The insurgent radio station warned foreign shipping today all ports from Malaga to Barcelona were liable to be bombarded without notice.

The Fascist cruisers Almirante Cervera and Canarias, anchored at Cuelo on the northernmost tip of Spanish Morocco, have established command of the straits of Gibraltar and troops and munitions are being transferred from Africa to Spain without hindrance.

CAR DAMAGED AT MARBLETOWN BY HIT-AND-RUN DRIVER

Following a report from Henry Pekin of St. Remy that his car had been hit and damaged by a hit and run driver, Trooper Elliott and Deputy Sheriff McCullough were searching Sunday night for the owner of a car bearing the license number which Pekin said had been on the car that struck him. The search was continued this morning.

Pekin told the officers that his car was parked near Kowal's gas station at Marblertown about 8:30 Sunday night, when another car smashed into its rear, then backed away and went on without stopping.

HOT WEATHER ADDS MILES TO HIGHWAYS

Increases Length by Five Feet in Mile.

Washington, D. C.—That travel objective which to some automobile drivers seems so far away when the thermometer is registering above 100 degrees is really farther than it is in cold weather.

Scientific studies show that when Old Sol is heating down his hardest the motorist covering a "mile" travels five feet farther than when cold weather prevails. This is due, says the national highway conference, to the expansion of road surface under heat.

According to the conference, an extreme heat wave "adds" 100 miles to the total mileage of surfaced roads in the United States. Warren Van Dyke, Pennsylvania's secretary of highways, estimates seven miles are "added" by heat to the roads in his state.

Makes Study of Streets.

The conference also reports that for the first time a dependable estimate of the total mileage of streets in cities of the United States has been made. Streets in towns and cities with more than 2,500 population have a total length of 190,000 miles, according to a study.

If a motorist were to travel over every mile of those streets he would drive approximately 30,000 miles farther than if he traveled over every mile of high-type surfaced highways in the country. The total area of city streets is more than 1,000 square miles, approximating the area of Rhode Island.

The American Automobile association has announced that it will demand repeal of the federal automotive excise taxes when congressional committees begin studying revisions of the tax structure soon.

Elits Automotive Taxes.

Association officials declare that the recent White House conference "concerning possible future reductions in federal taxes made particular reference to removal of inequities from the schedules."

They insist "there is no more glaring example of inequity in the entire setup than these automotive taxes."

The association contends that federal motor levies invade a field properly belonging to the states, place a tremendous burden on motor-car owners and that the gasoline tax is a levy on a commodity already greatly overexploited by states and municipalities.

It reports that the grand total of special motor-vehicle-tax collections in 1935 was $1,286,907, an increase of $85,000,000 over the preceding year. This total comprised $616,851,761 of state gasoline taxes, $322,481,415 of state registration fees, $273,324,621 of federal excise taxes and $73,500,000 of county and municipal taxes.

Housemaid Uses Planes to Reach Various Jobs

Goldfields, Sask.—May Jean Rice, Canada's only "flying housemaid," has a monopoly on the domestic service business around this new, rough and tumble gold-mining town. She is the only housemaid for miles around, which is why she has the business "sewed up."

The sprightly miss hails from Grand Prairie, Alta., she commands high prices for her work and commutes to and from "jobs" by airplane. Seventeen years of age, May is "having too good a time" doing housework for the miners hereabouts to settle down at present, but when she finally decides to marry she said "the good man must be a miner."

On Mondays she scrubs floors, does the men's washing and cleans up their cabins at Goldfields. On Tuesdays she boards a commercial plane for Warren camp, on Neilly lake, 35 miles away. She returns by plane on Wednesday and starts all over again.

Gold Coin New Mine.

Johnsville, Calif.—Gold mining has become so modernized that miners now dig out the gold already coined. John Pezola, operating a mining claim near here, struck a cache containing 170 rare $1 gold coins, five $20 pieces and seven $10 pieces.

Fish Mystery Solved; Gills Give the Clue

Washington, D. C.—The bureau of fisheries has bobbed up with something definite on the old and baffling question of how to tell a gentleman goldfish from a lady goldfish.

The tentative key to the mystery has been supplied by Wallace A. Little of Richmond Heights, Mo., and partly substantiated by Edwin H. Perkins, the Baltimore fish author.

Mr. Little's theory—as submitted to the bureau—is simple, but so was Columbus' egg trick. The formula: "Male—the gills will be flat; female—the gills will be noticeably round."

The Missouri fancier stipulates, however, that he won't guarantee the system to work unless the goldfish are two years old.

Trains for Opera on Milk

Helen Gleason

HELEN GLEASON, Metropolitan Opera star, is one of the latest recruits to the rapidly growing ranks of professional people who follow a scientific course of physical training to keep them fit for their work.

"Most persons regard singing as a recreational occupation which imposes no strain whatever on the faculties," said Miss Gleason. "They would know better if they had ever gone through the gruelling preparation which precedes every opera season. I can assure you there are few activities more fatiguing than learning new operatic roles and songs. Often the ordeal, going on and on into hours without apparent end, has brought me to the fainting point."

"But I have learned how to battle this demon of exhaustion. Not so long ago some of my colleagues and I were advised that we could offset the strain of rehearsing if we drank a glass or two of milk at such moments. We followed the advice—and it worked. It worked more effectively than I or any of the others had hoped it might. A bottle of milk has become as much a part of my rehearsal complement as the words and music of the opera."

"I feared for a while that drinking milk would increase my weight. Physicians reassured me on this score. They said it was a fallacy that milk is fattening. I have found this is true. In the past year I have actually lost twenty pounds. And I have learned, too, that nothing in the world is better for the complexion than milk. It has kept my skin soft and healthy."

Leake saw the body in the river while 300 Boy Scouts, friends and neighbors searched fields and woods and made a house to house canvass in an effort to locate the boy. Coroner David H. Atwater withheld a verdict pending further investigation. He said police were inclined to the theory that Charles was swept into the river when he stopped to play in nearby marshlands.

Strange Animal Alliance

One of the strangest alliances of the animal kingdom is that of the rattlesnake, the prairie dog and the owl on the western plains. The prairie dog is an involuntary host to the two intruders who move into his underground home. The owl gets shelter and the rattlesnake demands both shelter and food — young prairie dogs for choice. In some rattlesnake families, observers say, the mother opens her mouth when danger approaches and her young crawl inside.

FLASHES OF LIFE SKETCHED IN BRIEF

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Tactical Error

Columbus, O.—J. R. Poston received a telephone call a few minutes after he reported the theft of his automobile to police.

Poston and officers found the caller, an 18-year-old youth, standing beside the car, congratulated him. Poston handed over a reward and asked how he did it.

"It was easy," came the reply. "I heard the police broadcast the number and as I was walking along I saw the car and recognized it as stolen."

Poston took back the reward, the police took the youth to headquarters. No broadcast had been made.

Persistence

Meraux, La.—For as far back as he can remember, John Gardner, 48, crippled grocery clerk, has poked a broomstick under his bed before retiring each night.

The broomstick never stirred up anything but Gardner did not relax his vigilance.

A night or so ago, related Deputy Sheriff Celestin Rowley, a negro seized the probing stick and came crawling from beneath the bed.

Rowley said Gardner shot and killed the intruder, later identified as Ernest Leach, 18.

Question of Finance

New York—Harry Blum, 21, accused as a speculator in World Series tickets, told Magistrate Henry H. Curran money was the cause of it all.

A man, he said, gave him the ticket which was found on him, as a reward for delivering flowers. "He told me," said Blum, "that his girl friend couldn't go to the game with him, so he was sending her the flowers and I could have the ticket. My girl friend and I couldn't both go to the game on one ticket but, if I could sell it, we both could go to a show. So I tried to sell it."

Magistrate Curran suspended sentence.

Champ Liar

Herscher, Ill.—Donald Meyer, a blacksmith, won the title of "champion liar of Illinois" with this tall one:

While hunting, he spotted seven wild turkeys on a limb. Having only one cartridge left in his rifle, he fired into the limb and split it so the turkeys' legs dropped through and dangled below. Then he squeezed the limb together, imprisoning the turkeys and carried his catch home.

GREATEST FINISH UNDER FIRE IN GOLFING HISTORY: Tony Manero came through with a spectacular 282 to win the 1936 National Open Golf Tournament. His digestion stands the strain. As Tony says: "I'll go on record as one who thanks Camels for stimulating digestion. I enjoy food more—and have a feeling of ease afterward when I enjoy Camels with my meals. Camels set me right."

CHAMPION BOWLER, Johnny Murphy says: "Smoking Camels at meals and after works out swell in my case. Camels help my digestion. After a meal and Camels, I really enjoy life."

ALL-AROUND ATHLETE from Texas, Miss Mary Carter says: "Since I've learned how pleasant Camels make my mealtime, I wouldn't be without them. They never get on my nerves."

WHETHER YOU ARE CATCHING A QUICK BITE OR DINING IN STATE—

FOR DIGESTION'S SAKE SMOKE CAMELS!

Camels increase digestive activity—encourage a sense of well-being!

WITH healthy nerves and good digestion, you feel on top of the world. When you smoke Camels with your meals and after, Camels help in two special ways: Tension is lessened and Camels promote digestive well-being.

So enjoy Camels between courses and after eating. Strain eases. The flow of digestive fluids, so vital to proper nutrition, is speeded up. Alkalinity is increased. Food tastes more delicious and you get more good from what you eat.

For good cheer—for invigorating "lift"—for matchless taste—and "for digestion's sake"—the answer is Camels. Camels set you right! And they don't get on your nerves.

HOLLYWOOD RADIO THEATRE! Camel Cigarettes bring you a FULL HOUR'S ENTERTAINMENT! Benary Goodman's "Swing" Band... George Snell's Concert Orchestra... New Christian Unit Endeavor Formed

Another unit was recorded to the ever growing Christian Endeavor Society on Sunday evening at the Elmendorf Presbyterian Church where approximately 14 young people and their advisors were in attendance for the initial session.

The Christian Endeavor idea which has been quite frequent in the past few years in the city has tended to form these Christian Endeavor organizations. Every young person, boy or girl, is becoming to acknowledge the position that the country is in now and they are lending their assistance which undoubtedly will curb quite a few problems. The young people in the First Presbyterian Church met with much desire to organize a unit of the Christian Endeavor, and although the meeting was not attended in very large numbers, it was nevertheless an important session. The highlight of the evening was the election of officers for the coming year.

The program opened with a prayer and then the Rev. Dr. Gates led in the singing of a song. Miss Evelyn Winfield was the accompanying pianist. Dr. Gates then acted as temporary chairman until elections took place. The latter included with another song and prayer, ended the evening's program. The following were elected into the various offices: President, Miss Evelyn Winfield; vice president, John Ennis; corresponding secretary, Miss Edwina Schultz; recording secretary, Irwin Thomas; treasurer, Miss Jeanne DuBois and regular pianist, Miss Elvira Burger.

Those present at the meeting were the Rev. Dr. Gates, the Misses Helen Reese, Anna Helms, Marian DuBois, Jeanne DuBois, Evelyn Winfield, Edwina Schultz, Elvira Burger and the Messrs. Bert Streeter, Bill Evans, Robert Marasca, Howard Stephens, John Ennis and Irwin Thomas.

The second meeting of the Senior Christian Endeavor will be held next Sunday at 6:15 p. m., while the Junior Christian Endeavor will also meet in their confab next Sunday to form their organization.

LEHMAN SOCIAL SECURITY PROGRAM IS REVIVED

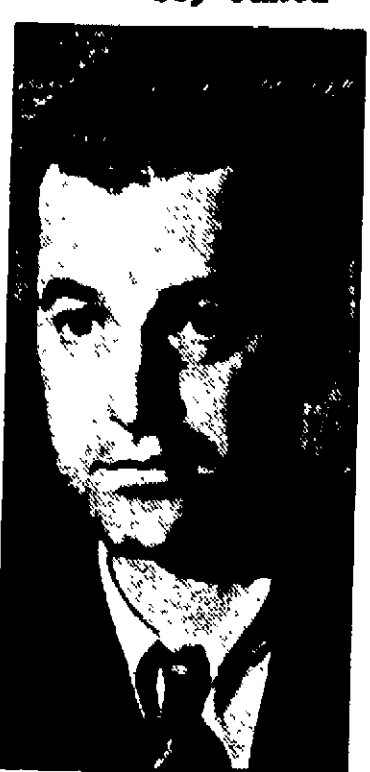

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 5 (AP)—Governor Lehman's controversy with the 1935 legislature over his eight-point social security program was revived today as the chief executive announced the award of 3,455 new grants of old age assistance since October 1.

The governor said the legislature in defeating his program prevented "a very great saving for the localities."

has contributed $2,723,757 to help care for the 64,123 persons now receiving old age assistance. For the last quarter of the year, the governor added, "we expect to receive" an additional $2,490,000, substantially all of which will be transmitted to local communities prior to December 1.

Scientists advise sparing use of red and yellow in home decoration. Bright colors affect the nervous system and daily and are hardest on the human eye.

ARROW SHIRTS

Here are three winners in one league!

The American and National League, this month, offer one winner each. But the Style League offers three. Three shirts. Three Arrow shirts.

No. 1: the New Trump, with a new ingeniously woven soft collar, the longest-wearing collar ever sewn on a shirt.

No. 2: Hilt, whose more formal Arosset collar looks starched without starch, and keeps fresh all day.

No. 3: Gordon, Arrow's famous oxford that won't shrink.

Nature's Contribution to Man's Comfort

Angora Knit-tex Coat

The Angora goat lives in mountainous altitudes where the days are hot but the nights are freezing cold. As protection against these great changes, Nature provides a unique covering of hair which is simply warm for the nights, but still comfortably weightless by day.

The Angora Knit-tex Coat takes its cue from Nature. It is made from this Angora hair which not only retains its weightless warmth, but provides a fabric of richly luxurious texture as well. You will appreciate the practical year-round usefulness of the Angora Knit-tex. But owning and wearing a coat of such soft luxury will give you a real thrill.

Yankee Ball-Killers Too Cruel, Pennant Within Their Reach Today

New York, Oct. 5 (AP).—What started out as New York's baseball civil war for world championship stakes looked very much like a rout today, with the Yankees' ball-killers galloping rough-shod over the finest pitching defense the Giants have had to offer, and needing only one more victory to clinch the winners' share of a record-breaking player pool.

Unless the National League champions rally their sagging spirits this afternoon at Yankee Stadium, behind the "sinker" ball hurling of Hal Schumacher, it may be all over but the shouting. The Giants can take inspiration from the fact the Pittsburgh Pirates of 1935 came from behind in a similar spot, to take the last three games of a seven-game series from Washington, but baseball men do not expect that "miracle" to be repeated.

On the heels of Lou Gehrig's game wrecking homer, which started the great Earl Berra on the way to defeat yesterday after a 17-game winning streak, there seems little room for argument against the brand-of-first-degree murder the Yanks pack in their big bats, regardless of the "exceptional" pitching of which Bill Terry and the Giants boast.

A Real "Swag" Team

The fine hurling, on the strength of which Terry picked his Giants in the series, unquestionably has been forthcoming for the National Leagueans from the great Hubble and his fat pitching mate, Freddy Plummons. However, the pressure of Murderers Row appears to have been as impossible for them to bear as it was for the entire American League pitching fraternity during the recent season.

The Yanks nominated their burly right-hander, Charley the Red Ruffing, to oppose Schumacher today in the fifth game. Both were beaten in their first starts. Ruffing lost the

Marion Wins Opener From Liberty On Naines Touchdown, 6-0 Score

Kington High School vanquished Decker entered for Von Essen. An incomplete pass was followed by Sunday by the narrow margin of 6-0. other triple-play pass which he made when S. Hurvitz fumbled on the 14 yard line. The host of Maroon factor's position on the pill, as the first quarter ended with Kington out in front, 4-0.

opening kick-off on their own 42, the Klasmen flashed a brilliant repertoire of offensive maneuvers, featuring Tommy Makes, and culminated a sustained drive by plunging over from the four yard marker. The game was close only in the final tally, as the locals held a huge edge from a statistical viewpoint. Liberty fought back valiantly in its characteristic style and its stubbornness in the touchdown zone kept the score restricted.

Emerging victor's in its initial effort, the Maroon, won a sting- ing 19-14 defeat of last year and proved capable of hurting their first obstacle. However, the locals face a tough schedule and improvement in several departments must be shown if the victory march is to continue. Taking the field for the first time in actual competition, the Lions town boys flashed their new maulon-tiated uniforms under perfect weather conditions to make a very colorful setting combined with the flashily-attired Liberty school band and the waiting Nyulassy. A boot by Malnes was run back nine yards by S. Hurwitz to the 29. Mur- ray gained six in two tries and Rib- bary batted down a pass after which Liberty kicked to the Kingston. 42. Wilber and Malnes cracked on and Murphy made it first down on the 48. Meagher replaced Stoll and flipped a pass to Malnes on the 35. After Mur- ray and Wilber advanced to the 24, Meagher and Malnes collaborated for seven yards. A juggled pass set the locals back three yards and then meagher got on a lung pass that just missed connections to Captain Mur- phy in the end zone.

Tommy Maines sparked in the seasonal debut and received ample support from the backfield, including Harry Wilber and Captain De Mott. The big blond triple threat was in fine form and was the main cog in the early offensive of the Peals. In the line, George "Doc" Hurwitz kicked to the H. 35-45. Murphy then fumbled on the 45 and "Liberty" recovered. Wilber intercepted a pass and shortly after Maines kicked to S. Hurwitz, who, was downed on the 30 as the H. edged.

Third Quarter.

Rifkeny kicked off to Liberty and it was returned 13 yards. A series of off tackle slashes by Hurley gained a first down on the 43 but a 15 yard penalty set the Rossmore back to the 28. L. Hurwitz puffed and bucked but two passes were incomplete and his kick was blocked by the Bruins. Maxson was Captain Larry Hurwitz was the shining light of a sporadic Liberty attack. The mountaineer leader was a veritable one-man team, carrying the burden of his team's offensive and conducting himself well on the offense. Passing, kicking, plunging and in general carrying on an inspired campaign, he was a thorn in the side of the Maroons all afternoon. Both teams went in quite heavily for the aerial phase of the game towards the end, the Rosemeads tied the air with passes in a desperate attempt to score.

Lee Yeager, husky Liberty center, picked off to Kingston. The ball struck Riffenbary's chest with terrific impetus and caromed crazily round among the lunging locals before Studer draped himself around Riffenbary on the Kingston 42. McLaughlin was in the end zone at the third quarter end.

On the 20 yard line L. Herwitz was dropped and then got off a pass to Killebrew. The Kingston 40 for a 40-yard pass. Killebrew gained three but Studer nailed him through and dropped the ball at the 10 yard line. Maine intercepted a Herwitz pass on the 32. Wilbur

Tributes at Home And Abroad Sent To Straus Family

New York, Oct. 5 (AP).—Tributes at home and abroad were conveyed to the family of Jesse Ildor Straus today as they arranged funeral services for the former ambassador to France and retired president of one of this country's largest department stores.

The funeral will be conducted tomorrow morning at Temple Emanuel in Fifth avenue. Mr. Straus, 64, died of pneumonia yesterday at his Park avenue home.

"The nation did not have a more outstanding or capable representative abroad," said Secretary Hull, recalling Straus' three and a half years' service in the Paris embassy until illness forced his resignation last August 15.

General John J. Pershing, in Paris, said tribute to "an intensely fine and patriotic citizen." William C. Bullitt, who succeeded Straus as ambassador, expressed himself as deeply shocked.

For 14 years Mr. Straus was president of R. H. Macy & Company, New York, with which he was connected 37 years.

Mr. Straus served on several advisory commissions while Franklin Roosevelt was governor of New York, and the latter's choice of Straus as ambassador was one of the best made when Roosevelt became president. On accepting Straus' resignation the President said: "If this administration shall be continued for four years I shall count on your returning as part of it."

The merchandising leader counseled in the midst of the 1933 bank holiday that this country "has the best and sanest form of government." He pleaded frequently against the "barbarity and futility" of war.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Ida (Nathan) Straus; a daughter, Mrs. Robert L. Levy; and two sons, Ildor and Robert Kenneth Straus, all of New York.

UNIVERSITY BELLS REQUIRE ODD TESTS

Special Trial Towers Are Constructed.

Ann Arbor.—Final testing of the 55 bells cast at the historic bell foundry of John Taylor & Co. at Loughborough for the University of Michigan carillon required the building of a temporary test tower duplicating the positions in which the bells will be hung in Ann Arbor.

When this was completed expert carillonists played and skilled tuners listened in. Every time the foundry completes a set of bells, Loughborough is treated to a concert. The Ann Arbor carillon will be the third largest in the world.

The 55 bells, together with their framework and equipment, will weigh approximately 200,000 pounds. The weight of the largest bell is slightly over 24,000 pounds.

Ancient Art.

Bellmaking is an art with centuries of traditions behind it, and it is an art, moreover, toward the attainment of which there is no short cut. That is why there are so few notable bellfoundries in the world. Modern industrial revolution has not passed this art by nor has it overlooked it. It has aided it, but it has failed to absorb it. That is because mechanical genius is not the primary consideration involved.

In the case of all large and heavy bells such as, for instance, a number of those in the Ann Arbor carillon, they are cast in moulds fixed in the sandpits where they afterwards remain buried for weeks before any attempt is made to uncover them. This is because their cooling must be very gradual and steady. Any attempt to hasten the cooling would wreck weeks of labor and cause endless financial loss.

Tuning the Bells.

One of the most interesting processes in bell making is the tuning of the bells. The heavier the bell the deeper and more resonant is its note, and when it is remembered that every bell has five separate and distinct notes, it will be realized what a delicate operation this is.

The five notes are the hum note, an octave below the strike note; the nominal note, an octave above; the tierce, the third note; the quint which is the fifth note; and finally the strike note. These must all sympathize.

It is the practice, or perhaps the art, to produce all bells so that the original cast gives off a note rather sharper than intended finally. They are then tuned by flattening them. This is how it is done:

A bell is stood, bowl downwards, on a table. Then it is marked off in five sections by drawing lines round it. Each section between the lines gives off a different note. It may happen that three of the sections ring true and that two are out of harmony — the second and fourth, for instance. To get these two sections into tune, metal has to be cut away from the interior of the bell. But take away too much and the bell is ruined. It takes very little indeed to overdo it.

A Giant Bell.

The 24,000-pound bell for Ann Arbor is more than six feet in diameter, with sufficient room inside it for quite a number of men to stand upright. The bell is held in an enormous grip while the metal is reamed out.

The vibrations of the lower rim of the bell are always the greater, graduating downwards the nearer you approach the top. In the process of accurate tuning a simple tuning fork plays a vital part but the tuner also has delicate vibrational test instruments to aid him in his work.

When the bell is declared perfect by the tuner, it is passed on to the sandblaster who, garbed in a sheet metal suit, applies sand under terrific air pressure until the bell is burnished and stands forth a thing of beauty. Fifteen minutes is as long as the sandblaster can work at a stretch.

Jail Has "Electric Eye"

Knoxville, Tenn. — Prisoners in the county jail here are continually watched by a "sleepless jailer," recently installed photo-electric eyes. The jail cells are on upper floors of the county building and the photo-electric eyes are on each side of the stairway and elevator to the cells. Passage of a man between the photo-electric units causes a going to sound loudly.

Garfield Home Opened as Historical Museum

Cleveland, Ohio.—The doors of the old Garfield house out in suburban Mentor are swinging again as they did in the summer of 1880, when many a high Republican party figure dropped in to tell James R. Garfield how the campaign was going.

The twenty-two-room three-story frame house was opened formally to the public by the Western Reserve Historical society after several months of work to restore its 1880 appearance. It is to be maintained as a memorial to the assassinated President.

Much Interest in New York Water Supply Activities

The how, when and where of the New York city water supply development at Lackawack and the building of the aqueduct which will lead the water from the new reservoir to the city is perhaps the paramount question of interest these days to the people in the sections directly affected, as well as to many others in the county.

The chances of securing employment of some kind on the job, if and when work is started, the probable location of offices, opportunity to "get in" on the numerous real estate transactions that will be involved, the possibility of lucrative business openings as the result of the activity that will follow the beginning of operations, the chance of renting or selling property to those who will be forced to vacate the site of the reservoir at Lackawack, the personnel of commissions to be named for the condemnation of land—all are questions that agitate the public in many quarters, especially in the upper part of the Rondout valley.

It was reported at Kerhonkson Saturday that the New York Board of Water Supply had rented the good sized house, formerly of Dr. W. P. Fuller of Kerhonkson, for one of the offices. Inquiry at the Board of Water Supply office in Kingston this morning brought the statement from Department Engineer James A. Gutteridge that no lease had been signed for property at Kerhonkson as yet.

The understanding is, however, that an office will probably be located at Kerhonkson. Such an office would be for the use of engineers and the clerical force connected with the work on the Rondout Division of the aqueduct, running from the proposed dam at Lackawack, to and through the Shawangunk Mountains and to the end of the division east of the mountains.

Mr. Gutteridge stated also that the lease of the third floor of the Opera House Building for the use of the Board of Water Supply had not yet been signed.

Justice Bleakley Talks With Farmers

conferences were devoted to discussion of a program for elimination of banks disease and mastitis, farm-to-market roads, redemption of submarginal land and reforestation.

Concerning discussion of farm-to-market roads, Justice Bleakley said: "There has been complaint that none of the gasoline tax has been used for that purpose, for which at least part of it was intended."

"The money has been raised, but diverted," he added.

Between conferences with the farm leaders, Justice Bleakley motored to Hamilton, Madison county, to address a Republican rally Saturday night at which he criticized the fiscal policies of Governor Lehman.

The nominee said that the Democratic governor predicted surpluses would be recorded at the end of each successful fiscal year, but instead, he said, there were deficits.

At the same time, the Tonawanda Journal fired a shot at Communism with the statement:

"I am for the constitution of the United States because it stands for everything that Communism is against."

"The stronger the constitution, the weaker is Communism," he said.

Dairy Committee Program Meeting

On Friday, October 2, the Ulster County Farm Bureau Dairy Committee met and arranged the program of work for 1937. C. L. Allen, chairman of the committee presided. Mr. Allen, who is also the regional representative on the State Farm Bureau Federation dairy committee, gave a complete report of the annual meeting of this committee held recently at Albany. Mr. Allen also reported on the results of the program carried out during 1936.

The committee decided that the economic situation was the most serious problem facing Ulster county dairymen. The price of feed has advanced out of line with the price received for milk. This coupled with short crops of home-grown feeds and high overhead costs make the situation critical, according to the committee. Other problems which will be attacked by the committee are: Reduction of feed costs, growing of better roughage, including silage corn; improvement of pastures, dairy records and outlook information. Various meetings and demonstrations will be planned to help dairymen solve these problems. In addition the committee arranged to have numerous miscellaneous services available; including, ventilation, disease control, calf rearing, bull pen construction, breeding and individual feeding problems.

The program arranged for by the committee is designed to be of value to all dairy farmers in Ulster county. Those present at the meeting included Mr. Allen, B. H. Decker, V. A. Barnhart, Myron Boice, Mr. Hendricks, Harry Beatty, W. C. Cotton, George Sallee, Raymond DuBois, Cyril G. Snel and Albert Kurdt.

Lown Accused as Drunken Driver

At a hearing before Justice R. J. Mooney of Eddyville at 10 o'clock this morning in the case of Morton Lown of 371 Albany avenue, charged with driving while intoxicated, the case was adjourned to October 14.

Lown was arrested by Troopers Reilly and Elliott and Deputy Sheriff McCullough early Saturday night, after his car, a new Ford, had left the highway on the Plank road and knocked down an electric light pole, so that electric service was out of commission in the Stony Hollow section for some time. The car was badly damaged and the driver was treated at the Kingston Hospital for lacerations about the nose.

Following his arrest Lown was paroled in custody of his attorney, William D. Brinnier, Jr., pending a hearing before Justice Mooney this morning.

Landon Welcomes
Legion Commander

Topeka, Kas., Oct. 5 (AP)—Governor Alf M. Landon interrupted speech drafting today to welcome home a friend, Harry Colmery, as the new national commander of the American Legion.

The Republican nominee was busy with preparation of addresses for his Lake States tour beginning Thursday night and his eastern campaign for the presidency late this month.

He devoted Sunday to his family and to solitary study in the library of the executive mansion.

The state capital made a gala celebration of the homecoming of Colmery, second Topekan to head the national Legionnaires' organization. Harry T. O'Neil, law partner of John D. M. Hamilton, national chairman of the Republican party, participated in the festivities. He was national commander six years ago. State Commander Earl Todd of Independence, Landon's home town, was in charge of the welcoming program.

Landon headquarters made public a number of telegrams from Jewish leaders commending his recent statement that he had "no use for any elements who are endeavoring to bring racial prejudices and religious bigotries into American life."

Cares of state far away, President Roosevelt sat before a bed of coals on the family picnic grounds at Hyde Park and roasted a hot dog.

Judge Culloton Held
Busy Court Session

Number of Arrests Made For Public Intoxication—Two Men Ordered And Ate Meal and Refused to Pay For It—Other Cases in Police Court.

Eight arrests were made on charges of public intoxication over the week-end in Kingston by the police, and this morning in police court Judge Culloton imposed fines of $5 each on the offenders. There was one arrest on a charge of reckless driving and others for disorderly conduct.

Aloysius Elting and George Cortright, both of 522 Broadway, entered the Texas lunch room Saturday evening, ordered and ate a meal and then refused to pay for the meal. They were arrested on charges of disorderly conduct and this morning in police court the meals they ate proved rather expensive for they were fined $5 each, which they paid.

The police arrested four youths Sunday noon when they raided a crap game in a vacant lot on Meadow street. Theodore Krakowski of 50 Hanratty street, Mortin Farber of 40 Chambers street, Myer Weiner of 98 Hasbrouck avenue and Floyd Markle of 83 Hasbrouck avenue, were the four arrested. They were fined $2 each.

William Engle of 18 Len Court was arrested shortly after 11 o'clock Sunday evening following a collision between the car he was driving and that of Clifford Ferris of Andes at Wall and John streets. The charge was one of reckless driving. This morning Attorney Arthur Ewig appeared for Mr. Engle and entered a plea of not guilty. The hearing was adjourned to later. No one was reported injured in the collision.

Sam Lockett, a negro of 4 Converse street, was arrested on a charge of failing to observe a full stop sign. His case was held open until later. Thomas Bell, Thomas Sampson, Watkins Carrington, Paul Thomas and Theodore Van Steenburgh all of this city, were fined $5 each for public intoxication.

James Ryan of Cleveland and Mortimer Kinnane of Buffalo, were each fined $5 for public intoxication. Everett Walker of Port Ewen was fined $5 for public intoxication.

Loyalty Sunday at Downtown Church

Loyalty Sunday was observed at the Roundout Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning with special services in the Sunday School followed by special services in the church.

In the Sunday School a group of pupils from the class of Miss Mary Staples had charge of the opening exercises. Later in the church auditorium the junior section of the services were taken over by the young people. An added attraction was the negro quartet from the Jenkins Orphanage of Charleston, S. C., who are yearly visitors to the church. They sang two selections. Interesting reports of recent young people's conference were made by Miss Shirley Goodsell and Miss Anna Davis, who attended the girls' conference and by John McCullough and William Darling who attended a conference for boys during the summer. The Loyalty Day sermon was delivered by the pastor, the Rev. James N. Armstrong, Jr.

The monthly meeting of the officers and older scholars of the Sunday School will be held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. George D. Jordan on Garden street. The Women's Missionary Society will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William C. Kingman on Highland avenue.

The annual turkey supper and fair of the church will be held on November 16 and 17.

The birthday of Frank M. Hubbard, American caricaturist who died in 1935, is not known. He was author of "Abe Martin's Sayings."

Candidates and Issues

(By The Associated Press)

Hyde Park, N. Y.—President Roosevelt leaves tonight for Washington, whence he departs later in the week on a western speaking tour.

Topeka, Kas.—Governor Landon arranges to participate today in welcome home celebration for Harry Colmery, new American Legion head. Boston—Colonel Frank Knox speaks here tonight after tour of other Massachusetts cities.

Williston, N. D.—Representative William Lemke says U. S. may be drawn into war if Secretary Morgenthau "is permitted to gamble in foreign securities."

Spokane—Norman Thomas says that under socialism each worker could earn about $200 a month.

Boston—Earl Browder calls for unity of "forces of progressivism" to prevent "America from going the road of Germany."

Presidential Lists
More Conferences

Hyde Park, N. Y., Oct. 5 (AP)—

His western campaign trip itinerary virtually complete, President Roosevelt today arranged further political conferences here before leaving for Washington tonight to tackle urgent government business and prepare two or three major stump speeches.

To a luncheon conference at the summer White House he invited Frank Murphy, former high commissioner to the Philippines and Democratic candidate for governor of Michigan, and William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor.

Murphy is running with the full endorsement of the administration in a state where political observers have predicted a real battle. Green has announced for Roosevelt.

Mr. Roosevelt is expected to leave Friday on his speaking campaign in the west.

Registration of Interest to Leaders

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 5 (AP)—Major

party leaders in New York state watched with keen interest today the beginning of personal registration in New York city preparatory to the November general election.

It will continue through Saturday. Update, registration will be on Friday and Saturday of this week and the following week.

With New York considered a key state in the forthcoming battle of ballots, the high commands of both parties will look to the registration turnout as an indication of the trends in both national and state elections. James A. Farley, Democratic national chairman, has urged supporters of President Roosevelt, Governor Lehman and other candidates to be sure to register lest they lose the opportunity to cast a vote on Election Day.

Likewise, Rep. Joseph W. Martin, Jr., eastern manager of the Landon campaign, and Republican chairmen have made the same appeal in behalf of their party.

Connecticut Elections
New Haven, Conn., Oct. 5 (AP)—One hundred and twenty-one Connecticut towns will hold elections today in which selectmen, town clerks and tax collectors are named.

In addition, two cities—Middletown and Stamford—were selecting city as well as town officers. Middletown now is Republican and Stamford is controlled by the Democrats.

Violated Traffic Law
Alfred Ross, Southampton, R. F. D., was arrested Saturday at West Hurley by State Trooper Raymond Dunn on a charge of operating a car with improper brakes. On being arraigned before Justice of the Peace Roger H. Loughran at Hurley a $2 fine was imposed.

First Stages of Air
Cruise Uneventful

By CHARLES E. HARNER

Associated Press Staff Writer

En route by air to Manila, Oct. 5

(AP)—Only a few hours out from New York, yet the whole eastern part of the United States already has been crossed by a group of newspapermen heading for the Philippines.

We are due in San Francisco this afternoon after 18 hours of travel, the time it takes to get from New York to Chicago by train. Traveling by United Airlines we reached Chicago at 3:13 a. m. central standard time, just 5 hours, 13 minutes after our takeoff from Newark, N. J.

This air journey to the coast is preliminary to the first passenger flight of the Pan-American Airways Clipper across the Pacific to Manila and return.

We stopped at the Cleveland airport for a few minutes. In Chicago we changed to another of the line's planes with a fresh crew. The journey has been as uneventful as only an air journey can be.

Out by limousine from Manhattan to the airport into the waiting airplane; the two big engines roar into life as searchlights flash a flood of daylight across the field; the pilot swings the ship into the wind at the end of the runway, races each motor separately, then coordinates them for the take-off.

A moment of speed in which the searchlights flash by the windows and then suddenly the myriad red lights of the runway are visible far below. We're on the way at three miles a minute. There is nothing to do but take it easy and the same procedure is repeated at each of the brief stops. The landings are as smooth and simple as the take-off.

Included in the group of newspapermen heading for San Francisco—where the Pan-American Airways' 26-ton "Clipper ship" will head out over the Pacific Ocean Wednesday—were this reporter, Harry Franz of the United Press, William W. Chaplin of Universal Service and C. B. Allen of the New York Herald-Tribune.

When the big plane returns to its Alameda, Calif., base on October 20 we will have flown 16,420 miles over water, and when we complete the round trip to New York we will have traveled 21,400 miles in all.

Rosendale Building
Damaged by Fire

Early Sunday Morning Blaze Damaged Fullen Building—Mrs. Keider Awakened by Smoke Gave Alarm—Cause Unknown.

Fire early Sunday morning badly damaged the Walter Fullen building in Rosendale which was occupied on the ground floor by the Rudolph Rosier butcher shop and store. The flames were first discovered by Mrs. Abram Keider when smoke awakened her in the Keider Hotel which adjoins the Fullen building. Mrs. Keider notified the Rosendale central and the alarm was sounded. This was about 2 o'clock and it was several hours later before the flames were able to leave the building as the flames had eaten their way between partitions and it was necessary to keep watch for a time to prevent an outbreak of the fire.

The ground floor of the building was occupied by Mr. Rosier and the Democratic Club. When discovered the flames had gained considerable headway and the building was badly gutted before the combined efforts of the Rosendale, Hick Falls and New Paltz fire departments were successful in extinguishing the fire.

There was some damage by smoke in the Keider Hotel and in the Shapiro boarding house, the two adjoining buildings. Due to the fact that the adjoining buildings were of brick construction there was no damage by fire.

The cause of the fire is unknown. Anyway, you've got to say this for the political campaign—the public's getting an earful.

FAMOUS WASHINGTON
ZOO DRAGON IS DEADTwelve-Foot Long Lizard Was Favorite of Children.

Washington.—Koko, the Twentieth century dragon, is dead. Gone is the living proof of capital children that great, scaly monsters with sabre-like tongues did once upon a time scare beautiful princesses in ancient castles.

To the scientific world Koko was the Komodo lizard. He was twelve feet long and he was said to be the only living one of his kind in America. His teeth were as sharp as razor blades and his scales were almost as big and tough as chunks of armor. His tail was five feet long, and those who knew said he could cut off a man's leg with one vicious swipe.

His nostrils were fierce and wide, and many a Washington schoolboy—his nose pressed against the great lizard's glass cage—swore he saw Koko snort sparks.

Koko came to the zoo from far-away Komodo Island, in the Malay Archipelago, between Sumatra and Flores. The 35-mile long island, named after the huge lizards, is the only place in the world where they are said to live.

The reptile arrived at the zoo almost two years ago, shipped in a 15-foot cage of stout walnut. It took six men three hours to transfer him to his glass cage. His first meal was three dozen eggs and five pounds of raw beef.

He was the image of the prehistoric monster as he moved his ponderous body about the sand and rocks. Children came from every local schoolhouse to see the zoo's biggest attraction.

And then Koko got sick. He wouldn't eat. He lost weight. For the last six months officials knew he was dying. But the kids didn't. Up to the last day they came and pressed their noses against the glass and in wide-eyed wonder recounted all those fairy tales.

Bull Protects Master
From Police Snoopers

Colma, Calif.—An improvised drama here would indicate that both gangsters and producers of gangster films have overlooked the possibility of using a bull as a bodyguard.

Godfrey Twerder, local rancher, was standing by the side of his pet bull when Paul Perussima, state highway patrol captain, came cruising by looking for a murder suspect. He thought it would be worth while to give Twerder, whom he did not know personally, the "once over."

He started across the field. Twerder saw him coming and, thinking it might be a holdup man, started running. Then Perussima started running. Then Twerder, looking back for a second time, decided after all it was not a holdup man and stopped running. But Perussima kept on running. Even when he reached Twerder he didn't stop. Perussima just had time to reach the fence before the bull reached him.

He had to walk a mile around the fence to his car, where he found Twerder calmly waiting.

Drouth Hits Fishworms;

Price Booms to 1c Each

Des Moines.—The price of corn is going up and so is the price of fishworms.

"It's the drouth," John Keener explained. "It's so dry in Iowa and the rest of the Midwest that the worms are digging deeper and deeper into the ground, so deep, in fact they don't even come up at night."

Keener operates a bait house on the banks of the Des Moines river and supplies fishermen with fishworms if they're just common, ordinary fishermen, or with grayfish, minnows, doughballs, flies, etc., if they are "anglers."

He gets his worms from a farm near Des Moines, but where that farm is situated is one of his "trade secrets."

"We have to dig at least five feet down for 'em now," he moaned, "and besides we have to use a team and plow to break the hard-baked crust of dirt."

Keener said he had heard that in Minnesota conditions were even worse, with worms selling "two dozen for a quarter." He sells "ten or twelve dozen" for that amount, he says.

Losing Candidate Out
3 Pairs of Half Soles

Chapel Hill, N. C.—An unsuccessful candidate for the state legislature listed his campaign contributions as follows:

Two haircuts, two batches of announcement cards, five nights' lodging, cheese, crackers, soft drinks, tobacco, four rides to neighboring towns, three pairs of half-soles and heels, $15.00 in cash from friends and admirers, one light lunch and accompanied by heavy advice, and one heavy lunch accompanied by light advice, the latter disregarded.

Beggars Reins Auto
Pueblo, Colo.—Local beggars have raised the ante. No longer do they want a "nickel for a cup of coffee." Now it's a "dime for a loaf of bread."
